

CIPS Inc. Shotgun Operators Course

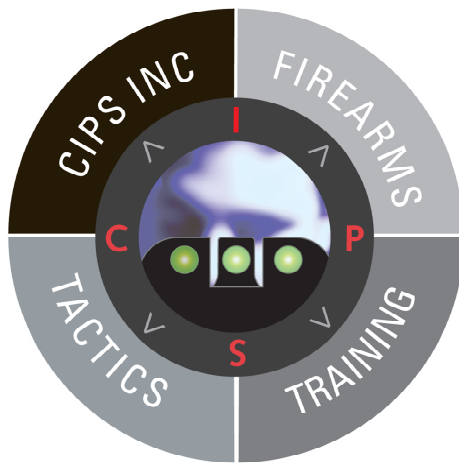

Company Profile

Canadian Innovative Protective Solutions Inc. is a comprehensive consulting, education and training company. Incorporated in 2002, CIPS specializes in programs for Professional Security, Law Enforcement, Corrections and other related private or public organizations.

CIPS provides operational solutions and training in support of asset protection, employee safety and client care. Through a collaborative process, CIPS creates training, policy and operational solutions unique to each client's requirements. Serving the needs of municipal, provincial and federal enforcement agencies, CIPS clients also include a broad range of corporate, service, health care and educational organizations. CIPS has provided services to personnel from over one hundred satisfied clients during ten years of operation. CIPS offers continuous support and training for delivered programs and provides the ability and corporate stability to defend those programs in the future.

References and a client history are available upon request.

For further inquiries please visit CIPSCanada.com or contact Mark Bloxham at mark@cipscanada.com

Basic Shotgun Operators Course

Course Description: Basic Shotgun Operators Certification

Course Length : 24 Hours / 3days

Community Peace Officers / Law enforcement / Government Agencies Only

This program was specifically designed to meet the needs of Alberta Community Peace officers. It meets and exceeds the standards of the Alberta Fish & Wildlife Shotgun operators Course.

Course Overview:

- This course will provide the Community Peace Officer Shotgun operator a diverse and comprehensive exposure to shotgun operations and techniques. The student will be shown basic and advanced shotgun operational procedures and will learn the skills crucial to safe handling the shotgun in an operational environment.

Instructional Goals:

Shotgun / Firearm Safety
Weapon Familiarization / Maintenance
Loading / Unloading
Carry / Transport / Deployment
Malfunctions / Transitions
Ballistics
Zero / Sight adjustment
Marksmanship / AACP Qualification
Humane Animal Dispatch Procedures
Cover & Concealment
Support Side Fire
Moving Engagements
Improvised Positions
Variable Light Deployment / Operation

Canadian Innovative Protective Solutions Inc.

www.cipscanada.com

Company Profile

Canadian Innovative Protective Solutions Inc. is a comprehensive consulting, education and training company. Incorporated in 2002, CIPS specializes in programs for Professional Security, Law Enforcement, Corrections and other related private or public organizations. CIPS provides operational solutions and training in support of asset protection, employee safety and client care. Through a collaborative process, CIPS creates training, policy and operational solutions unique to each client's requirements. Serving the needs of municipal, provincial and federal enforcement agencies, CIPS clients also include a broad range of corporate, service, health care and educational organizations. CIPS has provided services to personnel from over one hundred satisfied clients during ten years of operation. CIPS offers continuous support and training for delivered programs and provides the ability and corporate stability to defend those programs in the future. References and a client history are available upon request.

For further inquiries please visit CIPSCanada.com or contact Mark Bloxham at mark@cipscanada.com

What the Professionals have to say about CIPS Shotgun Courses

"This course met my expectations and that of the VPD's firearms training team. The course was exactly what we were looking for, and I thank you for that."
R.R. Police Trainer

"Very general covering all points and topics, from the most basic to the advanced. Any skill level learned something and came away with points to share with students. Very comprehensive course, and fun" P.S. Police Trainer

"The armour portion gave better understanding of system instruction. Practical, good experience in teaching shotgun techniques" R.B. Police Trainer

"Great job, excellent, thanks for sharing your knowledge" A.O.
"Two very excellent Instructors!, my hats off to you, very knowledgeable instructors" K.J. Police Trainer

"Lots of info, This was a good instructor level class, that was actually and instructor level class.
-well done- " B.S Police Trainer

Currently booking courses

Agency Hosting Benefits available

For pricing and details contact CIPS Inc.

Director of Firearms and Tactical training Bret PAGNUCCO

at 780-292-4636 or bret@cipscanada.com